

Workplace Revolution Panel

Terms and Conditions of Data Usage

Registration Page Submittence

Please note that this document explains the 'terms' in which the data submitted on the registration page of the Workplace Revolution Panel Event will be used.

Registration is required to allow automated systems. This process will enable the user to attend the panel discussion and access to the discussion materials, post-event.

- 1) The panel event will take place on Zoom and be recorded by video and audio.
- 2) The video and audio content recorded will be owned by TwistedPair and may be used in marketing.
- 3) The user data may be imported into the TwistedPair CRM under a dedicated campaign and be used to market to by e-mail.
- 4) The data from those who register may be shared with the rest of the panel speakers and their corresponding business marketing teams for marketing use.

Other than these terms there will be no onward distribution.

If you have a question for TwistedPair and the usage of this data please contact the Sales and Marketing Director, Hannah Sharma at - sales@twistedpair.co.uk.
